

Aniruddh Zaveri

Working Student as Software Engineer

SUMMARY

Information Systems student at TU München and Software Engineer at the Applied Education Technologies research group, contributing to AI-driven and full-stack projects such as TUM-Apply, Artemis, Harmonia, and Athena. Passionate about LLMs, data-driven systems, and technology convergence. Experienced in Java, Angular, Python, and agile methods, with a strong interest in the automotive industry and future-oriented AI applications.

✉ aniruddhzaveri@yahoo.com

☎ +49 1793719038

📍 Schubertstraße 1
84034 Landshut, Germany

WORK PROFILE

aet.cit.tum.de/people/zaveri

LANGUAGES

Deutsch - Native

Englisch - Native

Hindi - Expert

Französisch - Beginner

WORK EXPERIENCE

February 2025 - Present

Project Management

Technische Universität München
München

For TumApply I am involved in management as Agile Coach, server administration, occasional development tasks, and supervision of bachelor's theses.

February 2024 - February 2025

Tutor

Technische Universität München
München

Instructor/Tutor in the subjects Introduction to Software Engineering, Introduction to Programming, DevOps, Patterns in Software Engineering

March 2022 - February 2024

IT Working Student

Boston Consulting Group
München

IT service management, process optimization, IT training and support, conference talks, programming, agile working methods

EDUCATION

2027

Master

Technische Universität München
München

Information Systems

2025

Bachelor

Technische Universität München
München

Information Systems

2020

Allgemeine Hochschulreife/ Abitur

Hans-Leinberger-Gymnasium

Landshut

Secondary Education

SKILLS

Java

Angular

React

Typescript

Docker

Github

Python

SQL

Team player

Goal-oriented

Software design

Software architecture

Software engineering